

THIS WEEK'S NEWS, NOTES & ANNOUNCEMENTS—CONTINUED

- ◆ READING, RECEPTION AND BOOK SIGNING: Reminder: David Ambroz, national poverty and child welfare expert will be speaking at Messiah Lutheran Church, 1 West Ridge Road, on Sunday, June 4 at 4 PM. The free program is open to the public and will include a reception and book signing. The author's book, A Place Called Home, is a riveting memoir of his experience with homelessness, poverty and the challenges of mental illness. Skidaway Community Church is bringing Ambroz to Skidaway Island in partnership with Congregation Mickve Israel, Saint Peter's Episcopal, Skidaway United Methodist and Messiah Lutheran Churches.

It's not too late to join us.

Welcome

Whether you are joining us in-person or online, we are blessed by your presence among us. We are a community of guests and regular participants, believers and seekers who are invited to receive and share Christ's love. You are welcome here, just as you are, as we experience the joy of God's promises offered to all people.

Welcome

Three questions to guide our worship today:

1. What helps you to comprehend how God can be Three in One?
2. If the triune God is the Creator, Redeemer, and Sustainer, how do we observe and receive each of these aspects of God's goodness?
3. How can our trust in and witness to the Spirit's sustaining love lead others to Christ?
